

God's Grace

Kyna Morgan

Justin Barber

♩ = 85

1. What can I say a - bout His grace? It is too
2. What can I say a - bout His grace, a grace that
3. What can I say a - bout His grace? It broke up -
4. What can I say a - bout His grace? New mer - cies great, too deep for me. It wash - es me with waves of came at bit - ter cost? For - give - ness I could nev - er on my soul's dark night. Like dawn it shone in - to my come with each new day. I need not fear to - mor - row's peace, and car - ries me in - to it's sea. What can I earn, Christ died and pur - chased on the cross. What can I heart, and put my an - xious fears to flight. What can I storm, but trust His grace will guide my way. What can I

God's Grace, p. 2

say a - bout His grace? I can - not sound such depths of — say a bout His grace? Though once a slave I now am — say a bout His grace? Such rap - ture I am called to — say a bout His grace? Al - though I have e - ter - ni — love. Nor can I plumb what mer - cy did, — free! My sins once mocked my cries for help, — share! And so I do not sim - ply bask, —

 ty. It's a - ges will not be e - nough, —

— in seat - ing me with Christ a - bove.
 — Christ's death se - cures my li - ber - ty.
 — but speak it's glor - ies e - very - where.
 — to ful - ly grasp God's grace to me.