

LET US GO TO THE LOST

Kyna Morgan

Justin Barber

♩ = 75

1. There's a call and sum - mons We can -
 2. Fields are ripe for har - vest Why are
 3. Un - to Christ is giv - en All a - 4. Al - though weak we're giv - en God's sur - 5. One day we will gath - er sing - ing not ig - nore A lost world a - waits us, ex - work - ers few There's hope for the hope - less, If thor - i - ty The pow - ers of dark - ness Must pass - ing power, Tho' we're in - suf - fi - cient, we round the throne, with all tongues and peo - ples u - pec - tent un - sure. It's shrou - ded in dark - ness But on - ly they knew, The wa - ters of life are for all bend the knee. The king - dom we preach will take strive 'til this hour. Be - cause of our hope we en - ni - ted as one. We went to the na - tions, com - longs for the light It's blind to the truth, But it all with - out cost, If on - ly we'd seek them we'd root and ex - pand, in hearts, homes, and na - tions, re - dure the _____ fight. When we see our weak - ness we pelled them to come; These sweet words a - wait us "My

LET US GO TO THE LOST

claims per - fect sight. (verses 1-4) Let us go and be bold, Let us re - claim the lost. (verse 5) In the ci - ty of God, Where the viv - ing their lands.
 most see God's might.
 ser - vant well done!"

go with - out fear, Tho' the Gos - pel spread far, Our Lamb is the sun, We at last find our home with God will be near. Let us go in His name, Let us souls we have won. All the glor - y we give, and this go in His might, Though e - vil re - sist us it can - not win the fight. chor - us we'll raise, "Oh God, You are worth - y to re - ceive all the praise."