

Paradise Restored

Kyna Morgan

Justin Barber

$\text{♩} = 85$

1. Stand fast, O Church, and lift your head. Your
2. Fear not, ye Saint, when e - vil boasts. There 3. When fear a - ssails, make this your hope, that 4. My breath - ren do not fear in death. Be - faith and hope are just - i - fied. Our waits for your Christ e - ter - nal laud. Though soon cause of faith will it be has made no sight. Though Christ it has no sting. Though Lord and Sav - ior soon will come; re - pil - grims now with - out a home, our ba - ttle - worn do not give ground; Christ na - tions rage to cast His bonds, soon deem - ing those for whom He died. He will ride forth a dwell - ing place will be with God. No more will tears ob - will re - turn in match - less might. The re - bel boast will they must kneel to Christ as King. And when our Lord shall

Paradise Restored, p. 2

Con - quer - or to — stand vic - tor - ious o'er His prize. He'll scure our sight, for e - very one He'll wipe a - way. Do soon give place to — prais - es e - choed to the Lamb. The take His place, to — reign for - ev - er on His throne. He'll crush the Ser - pent, judge the earth, re - not des - pair, though dark - ness reigns. To Dra - gon that de - ceived the earth can - van - quish death and state His claim, that Optional piano interlude stor - ing us to Par - a - dise. _____ us a - waits e - ter - nal day. _____

 not with - stand the Great I Am. _____ pow'r be - longs to Him a - lone. _____